

POND PARTY

@ The Sherman & Ruth
Weiss Community Library
June 30, 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Great FREE event for the family!

UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN
Superior

Oodles of crazy critters make their home in the pond behind the Hayward Library. Join their party! Explorers of all ages and experience levels will love following UW-Superior entomologist Kurt Schmude into the wetland to catch and learn about aquatic insects. Once you've caught a gaggle of bugs, you'll head in to the library's meeting room to take a closer look using microscopes, magnifiers, and your observation skills. Bring wet shoes (and dry shoes). You can even bring bugs from your own wetland and Kurt will tell you about them! Meet Mollie, a Cable Natural History Museum naturalist at 1:00 p.m. in front of the library. Register for this free program by calling the library at (715) 634-2161.
