Haiku Poetry

@ the Sherman & Ruth Weiss Community Library

Here are some examples.

A bird on the lawn,
Rests only a moment here.
I hope he returns.

Winter can be cold.
But when I think of summer,
My memory warms.

This tree is a home.
I see the squirrel within it.
Be safe, little squirrel.

Haikus take practice to create, but can so perfectly capture a memory or a feeling.
